From time to time a membership list is published. The membership list is thought to promote the communication between the members of the FGI. Therefore the listing of the collecting interests is as important as the supplying of addresses and up to date communication data, i. e. phone numbers and in particular e-mail addresses. The membership list is distributed to all members of the FGI only. A publication to non-members or commercial usage in any way are forbidden. On the other hand we want to respect the privacy of your personal data. Therefore we ask you which of your personal data are not to be published in the membership list.
